

MONDAY, JUNE 20. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Nuremberg, June 18.

THE French have thought fit to withdraw their Garrison from Amberg, where it had suffer'd much less than any other of their Garrisons had done; which confirms us in our Opinion, that they will absolutely quit Bavaria, and endeavour to secure themselves, by joining their Army on the

They had at Amberg Magazines of their own, of which cost them 500,000 Rixdollars; these destroyed, threw the Corn into the Water, let the Oil, and Beer, run about the Streets, and burned the Apothecaries Field Chest. Not satisfied with this, broke into the Imperial Magazine, where they took the Cannon, and burnt about 6000 Fuzils. At Amberg they did much the same. We hear that M. Broglie's Army is now reduced to about 20,000 Men, flying from Ingoldstadt towards Donawert, in hopes of getting there with a strong Detachment from Marbach. A Body of about 8000, from Prince Lobkowitz's Army, is arrived at Neumark, in full March to the Auxiliary Army on the Maine, which, it is said, will enter on the Execution of the great Design by the German Powers, soon after the Peace of Ingoldstadt, June 18. About 4000 Imperial Troops, had been recalled from the Frontiers of Tyrol, and yesterday by this City, in their Way to Donawert, in order to reinforce the French under M. Broglie, who are intrenching, with the utmost Diligence, about Nuremberg. The Austrian Forces growing very numerous in our Neighbourhood, and the Imperialists expressing an Inclination to secure themselves here, has put us in the greatest Confusion imaginable. Our Garrison Arms, our Gates shut, and very strong Guards every where throughout the City, and its Dependence. The Austrian Generals, and great Officers, are ordered, however, to enter, and buy whatever they can find. They behaved exceedingly well, and on the 19th, met the Emperor coming from Prague, saluted him very respectfully. The Troops Prisoners of War at Friedberg are march'd away this Morning; we are desperately alarmed at the current Report that the French are on the Point of marching hither from Donawert, which would do us the last Degree, and, for aught we can discern, would not do either them, or the Emperor, any harm. June 20. The Army of the Allies are marching from Hanau to Aschaffenburg, where there is a Stone Bridge over the Maine; and by the occupying of which Post, they secure their Communication with Bamberg both by Land and Water. This Motion of the Allies necessarily give great Uneasiness to the French, knowing the Consequence of the Place, had they seized it, and were actually advancing that Way this View. They are at present at Miltenberg, which is on the other Side the Maine, at the distance of four Miles from Aschaffenburg. Yesterday his Majesty passed through Hanau for the Army. When he visited the Empress, talked in a high Style, and as if his Court was still resolved to support his Imperial Majesty at all Events, and put immediately into a Condition to recover his hereditary Countries. But we are since informed, that this is a View to draw from her Majesty some Declaration as to the Emperor's Resolution with regard to Peace, of which the French are exceedingly sensitive, tho' to all Appearance, it seems to be their Interest. We have no certain News of the Army of the Allies; some imagine, that as Ingoldstadt is the best Place in all Bavaria, he will remain there, and the coming up of the Austrians; but the French believe he will not stop his March till he is at Donawert, to prevent his Retreat thither from being cut off.

June 17. The King arrived here from Hanau about Five o'Clock this Evening, and set out again for the Army. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will immediately follow, as will early Tomorrow Morning the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Hesse is in good Health.

June 25. The Prince of Sax-Hilberghausen commands the Emperor's Troops blocked up in Ingoldstadt, has been so excessively distressed for Money, that he has been forced to coin Tin, and engage the Faith of his Imperial Majesty to exchange it when the War is over for Gold and Silver; and even this proves but an indifferent Expedient. The Council of State have caused an Advertisement to be published in the Gazette here, to apprise those are willing to undertake the furnishing the Train and Ponton Horses, and the Ammunition and Hospital Waggons, that they may apply themselves on Friday, Saturday, and Monday next, to the Secretary's Office, to have a Sight there of the Conditions for that purpose, the Council being to contract for it with them the Tuesday following. The same Council will, within a few Days, conclude Contracts for Bread, Forage, and other Necessaries for the March of the Dutch Troops. The said Council of State have named eight Majors of Brigade; viz. for the Foot, Baron Hammerstein, M. Morner, M. Pallardy, and M. Tuining; and for the Horse, M. Rivecourt, M. Spaan, M. Famas, and M. Robertse. The Dutch Generals have been in Conference with the Deputies of the Council of State and States General.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

Paris, June 26. There is a Rumour prevails here, that the Emperor has made a Separate Peace with the Queen of Hungary.

It is said here with a great deal of Confidence, that the Treaty between Spain and Sardinia is concluded, in Consequence of which, the Passages into Italy are to be left open to the Spaniards.

From the Camp near Ingoldstadt, they write on the 15th, That they are joined by the Detachment under M. de Segur; and that they were apprehensive of having their Retreat cut off from Donawert, which obliged them to make forced Marches.

From the Army on the Rhine they write, That some Officers having had Leave to resort to the English Camp, had been received with the utmost Politeness.

Dublin, June 11. This Day being the Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out on Oxmantown-Green: At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

On Sunday last died the Right Reverend Father in God, Dr. Nicholas Forrester, Lord Bishop of Raphoe, who was consecrated Bishop of Killaloe, Nov. 17, 1714. the First of George I. in the Room of the Rev. Sir Thomas Vesey, Bart. promoted to the See of Ossory; and in 1716 he was translated from Killaloe to Raphoe, in the Room of the late Dr. Synges, promoted to the Archbishopric of Tuam. This Prelate was remarkable for his Piety, Virtue, and Learning, and was extremely charitable to the Poor, and all Persons in Distress. In short, no Man living ever had, or deserved, a better Character, nor hath any one died more justly lamented.

The same Day died at Donaghmore in the County of Down, Sir Henry Cairnes, Bart. formerly an eminent Banker in London.

A Proclamation is published by their Excellencies the Lords Justices, for apprehending Richard Simcocks, Master of the Charming Sally of Galway, and Patrick Tierny, Part Owner of the said Ship, who took on board several Felons and Transports for the American Plantations; but instead of carrying them thither, they landed them in certain Parts of Europe, there exposed them to Sale, and compelled above Forty of them to enlist for Soldiers in Foreign Service: For which cruel Usage a Reward of Two hundred Pounds is offered for the above Simcocks and Tierny, or either of them, within Six Calendar Months from the Date of the Proclamation, which was signed the 6th of June, 1743.

Letters from Hamburgh, dated June 21. say, That the Russians had invaded the Island of Ahland with a great Body of Troops, and driven the Swedes into their Intrenchments opposite to their own Coasts. But Letters of a fresher Date inform us, That the Swedes being timely assisted by their Gallies, repulsed the Russians with great Slaughter, and forced them to retire to Helfingfors. From Dantzick they write, That the Russians abandoned their Design, on the Arrival of a Courier from Abo, with the News that the Preliminaries were signed, and that a Suspension of Arms was thereupon declared in both Armies.

Baron Buddenbrock has appealed from the Sentence pronounced against him, to the Dyet, for these Reasons: I. That he gave his Opinion in Councils of War, according to the Dictates of his Understanding and Conscience; and he conceives, that no General Officer can be safe, if pursuing that Conduct which alone can acquit him before God, shall subject him to the Tribunals of Men. II. That he was convicted by incompetent Witnesses, those who deposed against him being invited by an Indemnity, which is not only tempting but coercive in Times of Publick Confusion. III. That such as condemned him were incompetent Judges, as taking upon them to decide according to Reasons of State, which is a Lex non scripta the Appellant never saw, and professes not to understand; and, therefore, he hopes, it shall not be made the Rule of his Actions, so as to subject him for the Breach of it, to the Loss of Life, Honour, and Estate.

The Invention of a new Machine Sloop, which has been formerly mention'd as capable of performing a Voyage from Holland to Venice in a surprizingly short Space of Time, has been lately finish'd at Zaundam; but the Mob, either disliking the Invention, or out of Curiosity to see and examine it, crowded on board it in such Numbers, that it sunk, and all the Springs were put into Disorder. Of this the Inventor has given a full Account, in a Letter to one of the Magistrates of the Town of Delft, assuring him, at the same Time, That he is far from being discouraged by this Misfortune; that he shall be quickly able to get his Vessel on the Stocks again, and put all Things once more in Order.

From Dresden we learn, That his Polish Majesty, accompanied by the Duke of Saxe-Weissenfels, was to set out on the 22d N. S. for the Baths at Toplitz; which is conceived to be an Expedient contriv'd for the more private carrying on some Design in Agitation between that Court and the Court of Vienna; the rather, because his Majesty excus'd certain Foreign Ministers from being of the Party.

The 6000 Hessians, and the other Troops in full March for the Auxiliary Army, arrived there on the 23d, N. S. so that there is no Danger of M. Noailles drawing any Advantage from his Superiority in Numbers, on which the French Gazettes have insisted so much, as well as on his fine Train of Artillery; which is, indeed, unaccountably numerous, unless he intends to be always intrenching.

A French Officer at the Head of ten Hussars having rallied somewhat coarsely seven or eight English Soldiers cross the Maine, they contrived to pass somewhat higher, shot the Officer, who tumbled dead from his Horse, and brought in five of the Hussars Prisoners.

Letters from Jamaica, of the 10th of April, say, that his Majesty's Ship the Foy, has taken and carried in there, a Spanish Ship of 500 Tons, bound from Cadiz to La Vera Cruz, called the St. Joseph-Elias el Desidero, Capt. Orasco, said to be worth 100,000 l. Sterling.

Last Saturday his Grace the Duke of Montague, accompanied by several General Officers, went in a Barge from the Tower to Woolwich, to prove some large Pieces of Brass Cannon, lately cast in that Foundry.

The same Day Thomas Carew, Esq; Member of Parliament for Minehead, was married to Miss Molly Horne, Sister to John Horne, Esq; late Governor of Bombay, a very agreeable Lady, with a very large Fortune.

The Thirteen Ships lately taken into the Government's Service, to carry Provisions to the Garrisons of Gibraltar and and Port Malon, being compleatly Victualled, have received Orders to sail the first fair Wind, under Convoy of Two Men of War.

The Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor has presented the Rev. Mr. Francis Clarke to the Rectory of Winceby, in the County and Diocese of Lincoln.

Last Saturday a Grant paid the Great Seal unto George Powlett, Esq. of the Office of Searcher of the Customs in the Port of Plymouth, in the room of Thomas Brian, Esq.

The following is the Inscription on the Monument set up in Westminster Abbey in Memory of the late Mr. Nathaniel Rowe, the great Poet.

Thy Reliques, Rowe! to this sad Shrine we trust,
And near thy Shakespeare place thy honour'd Bust;
O! next him skill'd to draw the tender Tear,
For never Heart felt Passion more sincere:
To nobler Sentiment to fire the Brave,
For never Brian more disdain'd a Slave!
Peace to thy gentle Shade, and endless Rest—
Blest in thy Genius, in thy Love too blest!
And blest that timely from our Scene remov'd,
Thy Soul enjoys that Liberty it lov'd.
To Thee, so mourn'd in Death, so lov'd in Life!
The Childless Parent and the Widow'd Wife,
With Tears inscribes this Monumental Stone,
That holds their Ashes, and expects her own.

We hear from Tewksbury, that on Tuesday last the Lord Viscount Deerbury was sworn in High Steward and Principal Burgefs of that ancient Corporation, upon the Vacancy made by the Death of the Earl of Essex.

Last Saturday Mr. Mitchell, a wealthy Cornfactor at Mile-End, was married to Mrs. Price of Bermondsey-street, a Lady of a large Fortune.

By a Letter from Wheatly in Oxfordshire, dated the 14th Instant, we are inform'd, that the Day before they had a violent Storm of Thunder and Lightning, attended with heavy Rain, which lasted above four Hours: A Servant to Mr. Sutton, a Farmer, was kill'd by a Flash of Lightning as he was driving home some Cows; and four Sheep belonging to Farmer Sharp, were found dead in the Fields. In a Word, the Storm was so great, that the like has not been remember'd by the oldest Man in this Town; and the Damages done all round are too numerous to relate.

The Jamaica Rum, which was landed in a Warehouse in Wiggins's Key Gateway, according to the late Act of Parliament, and remained unfold on Friday last, will be sold To-morrow, the 21st Instant. The Warehouse will be open'd at Eight o'Clock in the Morning, and the Price will be 7 s. 6 d. per Gallon, and the Over-Proof to be paid for as charg'd at the Custom-House, the Advantage of which will accrue to the Buyer; and no Person to have a less Quantity than Ten Gallons.
